FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DENALI HIRES FIRM'S FIRST VP OF MARKETING

San Diego, CA, July 18, 2007---Martin Curiel has been hired as the new Vice President of Marketing for Denali Advisors, LLC.

Curiel will be responsible for all marketing activities at Denali, including developing the sales & marketing strategy, raising assets and positioning the firm with new clients.

Curiel is a native of California and was previously employed by Deloitte Consulting in San Francisco, where he managed strategy consulting projects for a wide variety of clients, including money managers. He has a degree in civil engineering from California Polytechnic State University, San Luis Obispo (1998), and holds an MBA from Harvard Business School (2004).

Curiel is also founder of the Rising Farmworker Dream Fund (RFDF), a non-profit organization focused on improving the lives of farm workers in the U.S. through the business and finance sectors (www.risingfarmworkers.org). Denali will be supporting RFDF by making financial and in-kind contributions.

Denali Advisors, LLC is a quantitative institutional money manager focused on domestic equities. Denali is the largest Native American-owned money manager in the U.S. with $1.13 billion in AUM as of the end of the second quarter 2007.
